ROKSOLANA NAZARKINA

🏠 Kyiv School of Economics
✉️ rnazarkina@kse.org.ua
👤 Ukraine

Roksolana Nazarkina is an aspiring researcher in the field of economic analysis, graduated from the Kyiv School of Economics with a degree in economic analysis. Roksolana worked in management consulting, developing a working prototype of the SBTi portfolio optimization tool. She also assisted in analyzing business processes for an energy trading company. She participated in the analysis of ESG data and commodity markets.

EDUCATION

2023

Kyiv School of Economics
MA: Economic Analysis

Kyiv (Ukraine)
September 2021 - June 2023

2017

Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv
Bachelor of Arts: Translation and Interpreting

Kyiv (Ukraine)
September 2013 - June 2017

WORK EXPERIENCE

CENTER FOR FOOD AND LAND USE POLICY RESEARCH AT KYIV SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS

Analyst

Kyiv (Ukraine)
June 2023 - Present

FORRS PARTNERS GMBH

Working Student Management Consulting

- Developed a working prototype of SBTi portfolio optimization tool
- Assisted in analyzing business processes for energy trading company
- Participated in ESG and commodity markets data analysis

Munich (Germany)
June 2022 - June 2023

TMSHIPPING LLC

Sales Manager

Kyiv (Ukraine)
September 2017 - August 2021

ADDITIONAL

- Languages: English - Advanced, German - Intermediate, Ukranian - native, Russian - Advanced.
- Skils: R, Python, Econometrics Data Analysis, Portfolio Optimization, BPMN, Tableau.

PUBLICATIONS:
Nazarkina R., Nivyevskyi O., (2023): Did Black Sea Grain Initiative help Ukrainian farmers? VoxUkraine. Available online: https://voxukraine.org/en/did-black-sea-grain-initiative-helpukrainian-farmers